- In order to be eligible to apply for subletting, both the sub-lessor and sub-lessee must be able to document that they will be actively studying during the entire sublease period. - Valid reasons for subleasing are documentation on approved leave of absence, internship, or exchange agreement. - During the sublease period, the sub-lessee will take over all obligations and rights that apply for the current tenancy in accordance with the tenancy lease contract. - Obligation and rights are not limited to the tenancy but also common areas. We draw attention to the fact that it is the sub-lessee who is liable for all damages caused by the person concerned or their guests, and it applies to both fixtures inside the tenancy as well as in common areas. However, the dormitory will always hold the sub-lessor responsible for damage, and the sub-lessor is, thus, directed to claim the sub-lessee responsible. Besides, we refer to the original tenancy lease contract. - The tenancy lease rent is charged automatically from the sub-lessee as long as the sub-lessor has deregistered their payment with the payment service. - Pets/animals are not allowed. - If the sub-lessee is not familiar with applicable agreements such as house rules, maintenance regulations, etc., vi kindly refer to: https://studieboligsyd.dk/en/ - The sub-lessee is responsible to the sub-lessor regarding post/additional payment of water, electricity, and heat. - The sub-lessor is responsible to the dormitory regarding post/additional payment of water, electricity, and heat. - When this agreement has been filled out it must be accompanied with documents of studies (pt. 1 and 2). Please email all documents to: StudieBolg Syd, Skovvej 20, 6400 Sønderborg – mail@sbsyd.dk
